The Crimson and Gold

COME LET US SING TOGETHER,
ONCE MORE OUR RINGING SONG,
SING FOR THE COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL
WITH VOICES TRUE AND STRONG,
FOR WE ARE HER LOVING DAUGHTERS,
AND WE ARE HER SONS SO BOLD,
HURRAH FOR THE COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL
HURRAH FOR THE CRIMSON AND GOLD.

SOON FROM THIS DEAR OLD HIGH SCHOOL,
OUT TO THE WORLD WE GO,
THERE TO REAP THE HARVEST,
OF WHAT WE HERE SHALL SOW,
BUT WE HER LOVING DAUGHTERS,
AND WE HER SONS SO BOLD,
WILL BE TRUE TO THE COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL
YES, TRUE TO THE CRIMSON AND GOLD.

Tune: ETON BOATING SONG.

LIFE

Gray, misty dawn her dewy cloak unfurls;
Two blinking eyes behold this chaotic world;
Two feeble orbs roam to the eastern sky,
And catch the gleaming rays of morning's herald.

A happy child plays on the rolling turf,
The tearful woes of dreary days is scorning,
His head thrown back he laughs with childish glee;
Hark! Storm clouds gather though it still be morning.

With palpitating heart he holds her hand
Before the altar rail. His youth well spent
He forward casts his eager eyes as threatening,
Rumbling clouds the very Heavens rent.

The drenching storm has passed—'tis dusk.—Sweet visions
Fall as lingering snowflakes one by one
In lulling eddies come to rest . . . . . His tired
Eyes close in peaceful slumber—his day is done.

—LEONARD DIANA.

CHRONOLOGY

VOLUME I

In September, 1936, we entered the high school as freshmen. Everything was strange to us, and we were strange to those who were already there. We made the usual freshman errors in finding rooms, and occasionally provoked a laugh when we addressed a teacher by the wrong name. It was not long until we overcame the blush of youth, and settled down to some serious work.

We discovered several activities in which we could take part, and gradually we became a known quantity in the life of the school. Some of us found places immediately in the band and in the orchestra. Others began a career of journalism on the Crimson and Gold Staff. We were not very active in varsity sports, because freshmen seldom are. We organized as a class, and elected Leonard Diana, president; Gladys M. Albright, vice-president; Dorothy Miller, secretary; and Heinz Steffan, treasurer.

The Library had been enlarged before we arrived in school. Wonder whether it was done to accommodate us. During this year the dramatic club produced "The Family Upstairs", and the Glee Club offered "The Shepherd's Vision", while the Orchestra and Glee Club later entertained us with the "Lucky Jade."

In the fall of the year, Mr. Smith assumed his duties as Principal, and seven new teachers were added to the faculty.

We ended the year with a party where we were tolerated by the sophomores, and then we were ready for vacation time.

VOLUME II

During our sophomore year, we became more active in school life, and saw many more events which were to go down in the history of C. H. S. Leonard Diana was reelected president; Dorothy Miller, vice-president; Gloria Duerst, secretary; and Heinz Steffan again served as treasurer.

The greatest event of the year was the dedication of the Glatfelter Memorial Field. We still remember those days of marching practice in preparation for the dedication parade on Armistice Day. We saw many new things this year, which none of the other classes had ever witnessed, such as the Girl Reserves marching unit, new band uniforms, and night football.

Then we entered into more activities, such as the Junior Rotary Club, track, tennis, the Crimson and Gold, orchestra, band, scarab club, library assistants, cheer leading, basketball, and the dramatic club.

This year also gave us the dramatic club's play "Jonesy", and the operetta "Tune In." We received our class pennants and emblems, held a party at which "WE" tolerated the freshmen.

After examinations, some of us attended the first open air Commencement exercises at Glatfelter Field.

Half of our high school days had now passed.

VOLUME III

In 1938 we were eager to return to school and take our part in school affairs. We now had prestige. Then too, all through vacation we heard about the "Pageant of Heritage", in which we were to participate. Our class became champion salesmen, for which we received a silver cup in the medal and program sales campaign. Leonard Diana, Heinz Steffan, and Dorothy Miller were again elected to their offices of last year, and Dorothy Aulthouse became our secretary. Mr. Bollinger, who had been our class adviser all along, helped us to select our rings and pins.

Now we became active in nearly all school organizations and clubs, such as the band, orchestra, glee club, the scarab club, the girl reserves, library assistants, the Crimson and Gold, cheer leading, football, track, tennis, basketball, and the dramatic club.

Parades have seemed to be a feature of our school career, because during this year we helped to organize a monster demonstration to show the need for some additional space in our school plant. We paraded, influenced public opinion, and paraded again to celebrate the victory when the bond issue won at the voting polls.

The all-district orchestra met at Columbia High School and gave our town a musical treat which will be remembered for a long time. Some of us played in the group, and then added the event in our memory books as another "first" in our school life.

Many pleasant events came to us. — The Girl Reserve dances, "Broken Dishes," "Don Alonso's Treasure," and the C. H. S. Swing Band.

The crowning event was the Junior-Senior Prom. Here we entertained the seniors, who were soon to leave our school, and relinquish their position to us. We were now ready to take over these responsibilities which were theirs, and felt that a few short months of vacation would lie between us and our last year of high school.

VOLUME IV

1939! Seniors at last! That year for which we worked and planned, was upon us. Events which we would never forget unfolded themselves before us almost daily. Leonard Diana, Heinz Steffan, and Dorothy Aulthouse again resumed their offices of last year, and Hazel Fornoff became our class vice-president.

Everywhere we turned, history was being made in all activities. The festival to help finance the band uniforms followed the opening of school. During the first month two new teachers, and a music supervisor joined the teaching staff.

The football season was well underway in mid-September, and what a season it was! John Harris was defeated by our hard fighting eleven. We celebrated this victory with a parade and bonfire after a day's vacation. Lancaster was held to a tie score, which might have ended in our favor had the game lasted a little longer.

The Press Club was selling football programs, editing a handbook, and photographing everything for the yearbook by the end of October.

The Girl Reserves had organized and prepared themselves for a busy season of dances, meetings, and the distribution of Christmas baskets filled by the homerooms. The Crimson and Gold had distributed its first edition of its highly rated newspaper.

The band won several prizes and gave some good performances both in assembly and on the field. The ScaRab Club was busy making posters and later gave us a treat with its exhibition of reproductions of great masterpieces.

Everybody joined the Red Cross, including several clubs as a unit. The band, orchestra, and glee club sent representatives to all-district music festivals, and all-state gatherings of school musicians.

Report cards made their periodic appearance, followed each time by student determination to do more studying.

The Swing Band organized, and later played a peppy dance in the gymnasium, and furnished music for the football banquet.

All of the musical organizations of the school staged a beautiful Christmas program which was a credit to them, and the school.

The Dramatic Club produced "The Supreme Gift" which was later followed by their greatest success, "Anne of Green Gables."

Our class won all prizes and honors in the D. A. R. essay contest on the "Life of Robert Fulton."

The pep meetings always had some novelty to surprise us before each home game. The cheer leaders added greatly to these occasions.

The Debating Club revived the art of public speaking, and gave us some lively contests in assembly.

The architects and contractors wandered about our school almost daily for several weeks which told us that we were really going to have and see that new addition to our school at last!

Throughout the year we were entertained by outside professional performers with such programs as the Ritz Trumpeteers, John Frye the magician, the Elliott James Liquid Air Program, the impersonator of Davy Crockett.

Shober Barr addressed us in assembly at a pep meeting and gave us a good impression of Franklin and Marshall College. Later Jerry Frock, the Lebanon Valley Coach, spoke at the annual football banquet and made us wish that we all could have heard him.

The P. O. S. of A. presented the school with a beautiful American Flag, at our Armistice Day exercises.

The Concession stand did a very profitable business at all home games.

The library sponsored a book week poster contest and awarded prizes to the winners.

The Manual Arts classes, including seniors, made a tour of the Safe Harbor power plant, and began new projects in plastics.

Dr. Schlosser, of Elizabethtown College, made his annual visit to our school, and gave us something to think about in his talk to the student body.

Oh Doctor! was the title of the operetta produced by the Glee Club and Orchestra.

Room 9 did a lot of extra work after 3:15 until we got back into our regular routine of "silence in the halls."

Those try-outs for commencement speakers showed us what talent the senior class had for public speaking.

Then came the annual commencement preparations. We ordered yearbooks, made reservations for the Washington trip, selected our class commencement invitations, and settled down for the last lap of our school careers.

The Industrial Arts exhibit showed the progress made in the shop department.

Track and tennis started, and we all gave credit to our Basketball team, while not forgetting the unbeaten Junior high school quintet.

The Girl Reserves completed their year with a dance which was even better than their Christmas and Valentine Dances.

The seniors held their class day program at which the Susquehannock was dedicated to Miss Detwiler.

The Junior-Senior prom was the crowning social event of the year, and one which we shall never forget.

The band held its annual concert on Glatfelter Field, and won the praise of a large audience.

While the underclasses were toiling over their examinations, we breathed a sigh of relief to think that ours were over, and that we had only to return from Washington, attend the Baccalaureate Service, Commencement, and return for that final day of school. Our class would never assemble again in its entirety, and the thought of this made us feel a little sorry that it was all over, but the thought of going out into the world to travel our various ways held the highest prospects for us and so we parted.

Want to buy a football program? Did you read your handbook? Was your picture in the Susquehannock? These publications were products of the Press Club.

This is the first year this Club has been in operation and with the exception of the newspaper, it attended to all the printing jobs in school. It also afforded an opportunity for experience in all lines of the publishing business from layout to sales.

While hard work seemed to be the outstanding feature of the organization, each member unanimously agreed it was all worth the effort, if you were pleased with the material which they edited and published so far.

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! The Crimson and Gold comes to us every month with all the news about our school. The staff and advisers feel proud in presenting the results of their efforts to the student body, because they do an excellent piece of work. Our newspaper is a good training field for those interested in journalism, and a splendid medium for acquiring business experience. Unique features found in the publication enliven it; and for supplying a true record of school activities, nothing can take its place. With the N. S. P. A. rating of our paper getting better each year, we hope some day to see the Crimson and Gold carry top honors.

"How much of the world's wheat does the United States produce?" "Must I have Latin to enter training as a nurse?"

Samuel Johnson said, "Next best to knowing a thing is knowing where to find it." Library assistants are called upon daily to answer questions such as are listed above. These girls are chosen on the basis of their fondness for and their familiarity with books. Such experience proves valuable to those interested in becoming librarians.

"Honorable judges, ladies and gentlemen, worthy opponents; the question to be debated this evening is" - - - - - -. This was a familiar quotation in the auditorium several years ago; now it is heard again. Intramural debates were featured this term as the introduction to this revived activity for which C. H. S. was once famous.

The question for the opening debate of this season was—"Resolved—that interscholastic athletics, as now conducted, are detrimental to the best interests of the high schools." By thorough and capable direction, the debating coaches have developed two opposing teams which will serve as a foundation for the future, when our school will enter an interscholastic debating league.

MEMBERS: John Aston, Hazel Fornoff, Anne Garber, Loretta Hartman, Richard Keller, Swift Lockard, Betty Mann, Dorothy Miller, Jane Mummaw, Muriel Nau, Laura Roye, Nancy Roye, Pearl Sandhaus, Nelson Shickley, Elna Staman, Thomas Staman, Arthur Switzer, Jean Waters, Miriam Wonderly.

"Once a ScaRAb, Always a Bug!" So goes the slogan of the ScaRAb Club. Mystery and deep, dark secrets surround their initiation ceremony. In October, after having seen the hair ribbons and ScaRAb signs on many students, we knew that a new "brood" had been taken in.

The "Bugs" made many attractive posters and signs for the other clubs and organizations. They also decorated the gymnasium in an original manner for dances and parties.

The club acted as sponsor for an exhibit this year which included many fine reproductions from both the old and new schools of art. The proceeds from this display were used to purchase several prints for the new school building.

"I Hear America Singing, Singing, Singing." These words from a cantata remind us of the enjoyment we derived from the sixty voices of the Glee Club this term. During the Christmas season the choir and soloists received much public acclaim for their part in the annual holiday exercises. Their repertoire also included other delightful music which was well received in assemblies and various special programs.

From the five members who attended the All-District Choral Festival at Annville, one was selected as a representative to the All-State Choral Festival at Knox, Pennsylvania.

The height of the club's season was reached with the presentation of the operetta, "Oh Doctor!" Only hours of rehearsing and careful directing could have produced such splendid results.

BAND

Drum Majorette.....NANCY SWARTZ

Drum Major.....ARTHUR BEST

Director.....MR. JOHNSON

A shrill whistle, a flourish of the baton, the beat of drums, a color guard, and uniformed quick-stepping musicians announce the approach of the aggregation that won first honors at Lititz and second place at New Holland this term. Applause follows the band wherever it goes, whether it be a "pep" meeting, a parade, an exhibition at half time, or a concert. Several members have attained such excellent ability that they have not only attended the all-southern district band but were also selected for the all-state band festival. With instrumental instruction now available to all who qualify, and proper direction for the band itself, a bright future lies ahead for band music in Columbia.

Mr. Warren I. Johnson

Overture! Overture! Curtain going up! This well balanced ensemble pleasingly entertained audiences by playing at school attractions and student performances this year. Because of regular and numerous practices, arpeggios and cadenzes, allegro to retardando, crescendo to diminuendo, are produced at the wave of the baton. Several outstanding members attended the all-southern district festival at York and one received the honor of representing C. H. S. at the all-state festival held in Berwyn.

VIOLINS: Janet Appley, Melvin Houck, Florence Jelly, Florence Markley, Anna Mae Quickel, Harriet Smith, Robert Supplee, Ruth Tshudy. CLARINETS: J. Richard Schultz, Evelyn Sherick, Janet Wertz, Earlene Winand. FLUTE: Karl Hoellerich, SAXOPHONES: Richard Dombach, Janet Gerfin. CORNETS: Eileen Kane, Jack Lockard, Curtis Manley, Emma Rhoades, Margaret Rhoades. TROMBONES: Lloyd Seifred, Fred Sherick. PIANO: Gladys B. Albright, Katharine Hipple, Laura Roye. DRUMS: Robert Stover.

SWING BAND

Vocalist.....ANNA MAE KURTZ
Student Director.....FRANKLIN ARTER
Director.....MR. SHAW

Rhythm! Swing! Melody! The Swing Band furnished enjoyable music for dancing in the gymnasium this year. It is truly an unusual organization for a high school, for most schools do not have a swing band. Nevertheless, no member regretted the time and effort required to produce this music because they enjoyed it as much as you did. The experience they gained may serve to inspire some of them to continue to possible fame as radio artists and they may look back to the time when you encouraged them with your generous applause.

SAXOPHONES: Betty Kurtz, Jack Lockard, Harry Shenk. TRUMPETS: Edwin Greider, Veryl Weigel. TROMBONES: Lloyd Seifred, Arthur Cain. PIANO: Gladys B. Albright, Karl Hoellerich. GUITAR: Kenneth Arter. BASS: Charles Miller. DRUMS: Edward Browne.

The team lived up to predictions of last season by completing a most successful year. It distinguished itself by its clean, sportsmanlike play, and proved to be the hardest fighting team Columbia High School has ever had. The victory over John Harris was the outstanding feature of the season. This was the first time in our history of football that a Columbia High School team defeated an aggregation from the Harrisburg School. The tie game with Lancaster's heavy team was just as good as a victory for Columbia, and won additional praise for our eleven.

Jerry Frock, coach of the Lebanon Valley College, was the principal speaker at the annual banquet held on February 19, at which time awards were presented to the J. V. and Varsity football squads.

Faculty Manager.....MR. SOLLENBERGER

Followers of the team this year saw a vastly improved squad compared with last year's organization. The new system of playing introduced last year is showing results in both Varsity and J. V. tilts. Victory is not the only thing desired in any sport, but both of our teams have reaped their share of honors this season by having won a majority of their respective games. The comeback which basketball has made is marked by another fact, and that is the revived interest and support of the student body.

SECOND ROW: Rotzinger, G. Groome, Moore, Koehler, Shultz, Rupp, Sherick, Peters, Mr. Sollenberger, Faculty Manager.

The track team had what we considered a successful season. Presenting a well balanced squad, they gave a creditable performance against all opponents. The outstanding features of the season were the defeats handed to Hanover and Middletown, also the ten points earned in the Shippensburg meet. In the District 3 P. I. A. A. meet held at Lancaster, Columbia scored five points and although the majority of Columbia High School's performers failed to place, they gained experience which will be of use to them in years to come.

SECOND ROW: Blumenshine, Abernatha, Hougentogler, Frey, Captain; Draper, Leitheiser.

Student Manager.....SALVADOR NOBILE

Swish! Zing! Wham! With the first sign of spring the C. H. S. netmen swung into action and put their second season under way. The team gave a good account of itself in all matches and showed a steady improvement throughout the year, having closed the season with a victory over a strong Lancaster J-V team. Charles Birk and Karl Hoellerich were the most consistent performers, while Greenawalt and Hoellerich were the best double combination.

CHEER LEADERS

"Divided Team Yell! Divided Team Yell! Make it good! Let's go!" Cheer leading, like any other activity requires precision, timing, and lots of pep. Our squads have all three. No athletic event is complete without organized cheering, and no team can play its best without support from the student body. Pep Meetings were all that the term implies when the cheer leaders kept things moving this year. With two alternating cheering squads, we can count on lots of life at games and rallies for years to come.

He not only serves in the capacity of physician to our athletic teams, but is a loyal supporter of all our athletic contests. SENIOR DONATIONS

At this time each year the senior class finds that it has to part with certain things which it has established and cannot take with it. These bequests are in some cases very dear to the donors but, realizing the impossibility of carrying these things through life, it becomes necessary to leave them with some worthy persons where they will do the most good. The following is a list of these items, and the persons to whom they have been designated.

Corn cracked by President Leonard Diana in assembly to Junior President J. Richard Shultz.

Bill Meyers' physique to "Bernie" Horn.

"Alvie" Rupp's athletic skill to "Dick" Smoker.

George Caley's love for oratory to Arthur Switzer.

Gerald Hoch's typing speed to "Corny" Westerman.

"Kenny" Haug's musical ability to Clarence Kurtz.

Janet Appley's slow-moving explanations to Ann Garber.

Karl Hoellerich's whiskers to Swift Lockard.

Jack Lockard's English translations in the French books to Beck Markel.

"Louie" McKinney's playfulness to "Ed" Dietz.

Nancy Swartz's shoes to the under-class girls.

"Sadie" Lyle's "add-one-more" hat to Elaine Place.

Laura Roye's "go-get-'em" theory to Katherine Hipple.

Doris Weaver's five-minute giggling spells to Elna Staman.

"Bob" Fisher's "clod-hopper's" to "Bobbie" Supplee.

Jane Mummaw's ambition to Robert Floyd.

The gum left under the seats in Room 9 to the Juniors.

Notes written about "heart-throb" Aston to the trophy case.

"Dot" Miller's marks to Clair Elslager.

The Junior G-man pins and badges which senior boys sent for, to all aspiring detectives.

Vincent Hable's toys, which he carries to classes, to James Overmeyer.

Earl Scott's driving technique to Veryl Weigel.

MUSSER FARMS

IN THE LAND OF "DON'T-YOU-BELIEVE-IT"

Nestling in a HILL-iar on the WELSH mountains, where three RHOADS meet in a GROVE, is a queer little farm. The occupants need no LEESE because the LAND-is theirs.

The dwelling has two GABLES and the inside is made of WOOD. However, the absence of cement in the construction of the building, makes it look like a SANDHAUS.

The little farm is inhabited by a group of dwarfs, each of which contributes his share to the comfort of the rest. The FISHER often FRY-s his catch for supper. The COLLIER supplies coal for the furnace, so that the others do not KITCH colds. They call him the KOEHLER. The WEAVER makes their LYLE stockings. Their pastry is unusual. They have no flour, because there is no MILLER, but one of the dwarfs makes the best APPLEY dumplings. They are covered with a crust made from crumbs which he gets from the CROMWELL on the farm. The dwarf named DIANA is always chasing a deer. When he catches one, they have a ROST. One YOUNG MANN is very WITTE. He is also a GAMBLER. The CARMAN drives their car. He is somewhat careless in his driving, but not exactly a zig-zag driver. He never zags, but he always zigs, so they named him ZIEGLER. Music is furnished to the group by the little fellow with the soft voice, affectionately known as HUMMER. Among those who load hay in the fields, is LODER. His love for horses is displayed by the fact that he never overburdens them, not by one GRAMM.

You can see that these little people are ALBRIGHT, in fact, each one has his own KRAFT. Every person who visits them ad-MEYERS their skill.

They like company, and are noted for their hospitality for which they make no charge, not even a single NIKOL-aus, if you do not stay too LONG.

When you visit them, they will bring forth a tray with a SAMPLE of their work upon it. If you can guess which dwarf made the article, you may keep it. So-o-o-o-o, be sure that you win when you go there, and take a TRAGESSER along with you

NAU I have told my story briefly, and I feel sorry that I had to RESCH through it, but time's a wastin'. I would have said more, if I had DUERST to.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Dear Aunt Polly,

I am a Senior girl with a perplexing problem on my mind. A Freshman boy who has a study period in one of my classes persists in sending me notes asking me to go to the movies with him. What should I do?

Virginia D.

Dear Virginia,

Go with him by all means, but take some extra money with you if you are tall. He probably doesn't know about the price of admission for adults.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I took an intelligence test and found that I had a low I. Q., but what troubles me most is, I dreamed that because of it, I failed in chemistry this year. Could this be true?

Dorothy.

Dear Dorthy,

That was no dream.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I have been repeating one of my studies for four years and fear that I will fail it again this year, in which case I will not graduate. What would you suggest?

Anxious.

Dear Anxious,

Be persevering my child. Never give up. Keep working as hard as you can at this course, and make immediate application for social security.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I am about to complete a course in typing. I am considered a fairly good typist but on finishing my last speed test nothing appeared on the paper. What shall I do?

Perplexed (Findley).

Dear Perplexed,

Ask Mr. Dunkel for a ribbon.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I have always had curly hair and I have taken great pains to keep it neat. However since going out for sports I am forced to take showers after practice. As this spoils my curls please suggest an answer.

Shirley Temple (Shultz).

Dear Shirley,

I have seen those curls and I suggest dropping sports.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I am continually being criticized for my use of big words. I am not positive as to the meaning of these words I use. Can you suggest a remedy?

Sesquipedalian (Marley).

Dear Sesquipedalian,

Try Webster's unabridged edition.

Dear Aunt Polly,

We hear a lot about attending home games. I have tried repeatedly to get in to see some of our athletic contests but some man at the entrance always gives me the "bum's rush." How can I get in?

O. I. Conneley, Jr.

Dear O. I.,

The next time you go, try buying a ticket.

Dear Aunt Polly,

What does Clark Gable have that I don't?

George H.

Dear George,

A razor.

Dear Aunt Polly,

Our quartet sang at the football banquet and have since been asked to give a series of performances in assembly. We like to sing but hate to appear before an audience. How can we do this?

Four Horsemen.

Dear Four Horsemen,

After your first performance I feel sure you will not be bothered with an audience.

Dear Aunt Polly,

I am a new pupil at C. H. S. and would like to know how to get to the principal's office?

Ruth T.

Dear Ruth,

Try being tardy.

Dear Aunt Polly,

Who was Confucius?

Jack L.

Dear Jack,

He was the oriental voice of experience.

Dear Aunt Polly,

Several of us have been in school for the last six years and like it so well we would like to show our appreciation by doing something for our Alma Mater. What would you suggest?

Stragglers.

Dear Stragglers,

Graduate.
